

ERASMUS+/INTERNATIONAL CREDIT MOBILITY

AFRICA MEETS SOUTHERN & MEDITERRANEAN EUROPE

On 3rd March the first meeting day took place at UniWA's Erasmus+ Office, in Campus Ancient Olive Grove, including presentations, discussions and a fruitful exchange of views.

Professor Simon Winberg from Cape Town University - South Africa, Professors Dana Landau and Arie Krampf from The Academic College of Tel-Aviv-Yaffo - Israel, Professor Jonida Teta from Polytechnic University of Tirana - Albania and Professors Inusah Abdallah, Virgil Abedana, Abdul Razak Abubakari and Sadik Adiza from Tamale Technical University - Ghana, with UniWA's Professors Sofia Asonitou, Eleni Tourna (Bus. Administration) and Stelios Mitilineos (Electrical & Electronic Engineering) organized the weekly activities throughout.

All Professors took part in weekly panel discussions with students from the Business Administration department, on good practices as well as barriers and difficulties in each country's Education. Lectures on each Professor's field were arranged within the week, leaving lasting impressions.

Between 3 - 7 April, Erasmus+/ICM partners to UniWA, concluded a visit to Athens to highlight the common educational good practices, participating in an engaging educational panel with Students and Professors, at the School of Administrative Economics and Social Sciences.

Intense and fruitful exchange of ideas on future development in education, project methodology and synergies to be explored, shared ideas and the added value of participating in EU programmes, were highlighted during the meetings. Common projects will be shortly announced.