

ERASMUS+/ICM

Kenyatta University, Kenya, meets the University of West Attica, Greece

A long-term collaboration has been established between the University of West Attica, Greece, and Kenyatta University, Kenya, for more than six years under the Erasmus+/International Credit Mobility framework.

In September 24th 2024, the University of West Attica, hosted daily meetings with the participation of Kenyatta University's vice chancellor, Mrs. Wakeke Wanjohi and the university's delegation.

Uni.W.A. Rector, Professor Panagiotis Kaldis, the Vice Rector of Internationalization and Extroversion, Professor Dr. Theodoros Xanthos, as well as professors from several departments, and the Erasmus+ Office representatives, conducted the group conversations.

Sub - Saharran Africa
Region 9
Kenya

Between Africa and Europe

Shared information about both universities, future collaboration expansion, and effective discussions, were the purposes of the meeting. Intentions to involve many departments of both universities to form new partnerships and convergence of will, indicated an intended common line of action.