

DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR ARCHITECTURE

SCHOOL OF APPLIED ARTS & CULTURE

FOR THE ERASMUS STUDENTS WHO JOIN THE COURSES.

To choose your courses, please get this link that you can find on the website of our Department:

<https://ia.uniwa.gr/en/courses/undergraduate-studies/>

If you click on each course name, you can see the description of each course and students' work as examples. The courses are partly taught in English.

For the Spring Erasmus exchange program, students choose courses only from the even-numbered semesters (2, 4, 6, 8).

For the Winter Erasmus exchange program, students choose courses only from the odd-numbered semesters (1, 3, 5, 7).

You CAN NOT choose the theoretical courses that are entirely in Greek, and these are:

- History of Architecture and Art I
- Construction Art I: The Materials
- History of Architecture and Art II
- History and Theory of Design I
- History & Theory of Design II
- History and Theory of Architecture and Art IV
- Space Sociology
- Philosophy, Aesthetics
- Psychology
- Lecture
- Thesis

You CAN NOT participate in our Master's Program, as it is entirely in Greek.

Some other useful web-links

This is the home page of the Interior Architecture Department:

<https://ia.uniwa.gr/department/>

<https://ia.uniwa.gr/en/home-page/#main-content>

The department secretary's office: <http://ia.uniwa.gr>

To be accepted, after your correspondence with the Erasmus office:
Erasmus_incomingstudents <erasmus_incomingstudents@uniwa.gr

You must send your portfolios to the Academic Coordinator for incoming students.

Dr. Maria Poli (mpoli@uniwa.gr), responsible for your course issues.

When you join our courses, you can find our teachers' names and emails in the following links:

<https://ia.uniwa.gr/profiles/faculty/> (permanent staff)

<https://ia.uniwa.gr/profiles/collab/>

<https://ia.uniwa.gr/profiles/meli-d-e-p-ektos-tmimatos/>

<https://ia.uniwa.gr/profiles/lab/>